The Priestess is locked in a tower by the sea. She does not conform to the rules imposed by the world. She speaks against hypocrisy and false authority. With only pen and paper at hand, she writes her way to freedom, guided by the moon at night. Could her devotion to authenticity set her free? Will her voice be heard by anyone?

Letters Of The Priestess is an illustrated epistolary testimony to inner life from the perspective of the divine feminine wisdom archetype. There are three parts to the book: The Outer World, The Inner World and The Other World.

Through lyrical letters, poems and prose, the reader is taken through an emotional journey of life, from everyday realities like Family, Children, Marriage through to an internal experience of Peace, Love, Freedom, Pain. Finally, touching the untouchable: God and the Unspoken.

The author goes against convention of personal growth and spiritual consumery, writes it as it is and aims at the heart of crucial life values. These letters aspire to spark evolution and incite the reader with a fresh desire to be genuine.

The spark of evolution once ignited, can only be kept alight by the reader's intention: to be who they really are.

100% of the book's revenue will go to charity helplines supporting mental, emotional and spiritual well-being.
