I thought myself cursed to live without love until I found you, my little angel.

Trent Maynard

I am wounded, mentally and physically.

When I find intruders on my land, doing some sort of photo-shoot, I feel my patience wear thin.

I have every intention of sending them off of my property...until I see her.

I have seen all types of horrors and pain, but never have I seen such beauty.

With each artistic pose, she reels me in and makes me a slave to my desires.

She stands tall when I expect her to cower, she talks back at me and matches every step I make with her own.

She is the type of woman I want, and I will be damned if I don't keep her, but will this beauty be willing to take this scarred beast?

Rose Steele

I craved something new...something out of the ordinary, and the hilly areas and mountainous woods in Colorado offered that and more.

The location, the view, and the scenery were perfect, except for one thing...it was owned by a grouchy drop-dead gorgeous stranger who has no fondness for trespassers.

I wanted a photo-shoot in the wild, but I got a wild man instead.

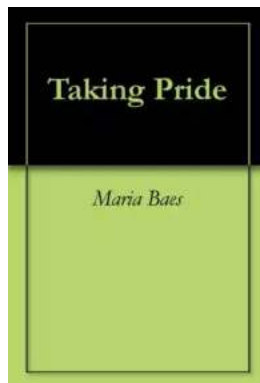

Looking at him makes my stomach dance with nervousness and my lips itch to meet with his.

He wants one thing, and I want another, but who will give in?

Heated kisses, entangled limbs, and a passionate night later, we are met with astounding news.....a baby.

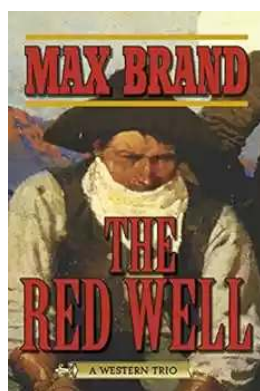

Will this scarred man open his heart to love and a family?
