Every dog has his day...

...and so does every killer.

Amy's story is like so many of ours. She gave up her heart to the wrong guy, and then she got it broken into horrible little shards. But Amy's a fighter. So when she gets dumped, she flies home to Southern California and opens a gorgeous pet salon with her grumpy granny, Petunia.

Petunia's a card shark, willing to bet on anything. This time she bets on her granddaughter and it pays off.

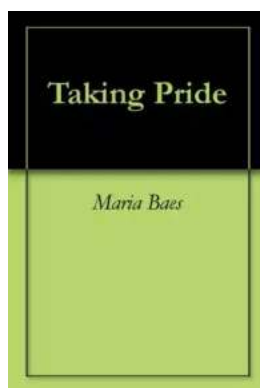

Family is everything.

From Golden Retrievers to German Shepherds, Amy's pet salon is a must for every dog owner in Southern California. But when the body of a washed up rock guitarist is discovered down the road — just after writing a bad review of Amy's shop — doggy do's and pet perms are the least of Amy's worries.

The killer was good, and he framed Amy for the crime, so Amy and Granny have no choice but to solve the murder. If they don't, Amy might end up in jail for a crime she didn't commit. Or worse.

You'll love this cozy because everyone loves mysteries with cute animals and plenty of suspense.
