Seeing shit no kid should and then doing the same shit to survive—that's been my life. Once I was safe, warm—loved, but all that was gone in one violent instant.

I've done bad things since then—nearly lost myself.

But what if you could take it all back?

What would me doing one more bad thing, in the grand scheme of my f-ed-up existence, matter if I could right a wrong?

What would you do? Would you do the unthinkable?

You'd do it, right? Even if you didn't want to... because fate gave you the perfect opportunity to make up for the sorrow you've caused another.

The one you love.
