Alison

Dating is so not on my radar anymore. But then again, walking in on your longtime boyfriend screwing some other girl will do that to you. It's better this way, though. I'd much rather focus on my career than trust my heart to someone else who is just determined to break it.

Too bad I couldn't hold onto that conviction as soon as my mysterious neighbor crashed into my life.

Tattooed and brooding, Logan is nothing like the men I usually date but the chemistry between us is powerful and I'm helpless against its pull.

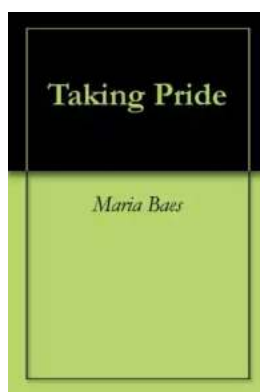

Logan

The MC calls me Storm for a reason. I've been to hell and back with the scars to show from it. No stranger to pain, the only comfort I find is partnering with my brothers at the club to fight for those not able to defend themselves.

I swore I would never let anyone else into my heart, to spare myself yet another agonizing loss. Then, I saw Alison and began to wonder if, for her, I could keep my darkness at bay.

As things between us heat up, my past rears its ugly head, taunting me relentlessly and putting Alison's life in danger. But I will do everything in my power to keep her safe and my only hope is she will be able to ride out this storm by my side.
