American Bug is a second poetry collection by Nick Ulanowski.

The author of "As the Moonlight Shines" has risen from the ashes of the despair and grief he wrote about in his first book of poetry. And he's back at it again, this time with rhymes and imagery about American culture and its failings. Nothing is sacred on the pages of "American Bug". Whether it's tales about white flight, sex work, revolutionary organizing, corporate downsizing, online trolls or police brutality, it's all here. Because the stories of the underdog will be heard.
