From Amazon best-selling author R.D. Brady, the latest edge of your seat thriller in the Belial Rebirth series, told with her unique blend of ancient history, religious texts and pulse pounding action.

The violence in Antarctica was only the beginning . . .

A new enemy has appeared on the world stage. Gedeon Malik and his followers move with the speed and power of the Fallen, but they are not Fallen.

The Fallen no longer exist. Delaney McPhearson and countless others sacrificed a great deal to make sure of that.

But Laney fears this threat is just as grave as the one posed by Elisabeta. And it looks as if the danger is only increasing, not just to Laney, but to the ever-expanding group of people she cares for.

Keeping everyone safe seems an impossible task. But Laney and her team have done the impossible before. Those successes, though, were when most of Laney's allies had the abilities of the Fallen that levelled the playing field against a highly powered enemy. Now, only Laney has the innate ability to go up against Gedeon. And she knows she alone will not be enough.

The only option that might turn the tide is a radical one. But will it work or just take more of their players off the field? And if it does work, will even that be enough? Or after everything Laney and her crew have been through together, have they finally run into one enemy that they simply can't defeat?
