Long before Delaney McPhearson learned of her destiny, a brave group of women defended a heritage that would one day aid us all.

The history of the forces working to protect the world extends far beyond the time of Delaney McPhearson. One of the first tests of those chosen to defend the good in the New World dates back to one of the uglier times in American history: the Salem Witch Trials.

The Followers of the Great Mother have long known the world is more than it seems. But escaping to the New World, they thought they had found a refuge.

But they should have known that when it comes to the Fallen, no place is safe.

What Readers Are Saying:

“Leave it to RD to create a positive spin on one of the ugliest stories in the annals of our nation, the Salem Witch Trials. You will feel the outrage, the helplessness and hopelessness, but also the strength, resolve and triumph of the women and men who stood firm against the darkness, in this wonderfully crafted tale.”

“There is so much detail (without being overly drawn out) that it is very easy to get drawn into all the stories and how they tie in together. I literally cannot wait for the next one.”

“R.D. Brady did it again.”

“Amazing series. Have read them all twice.”
