In an alternate version of Earth, life evolved a bit differently. The supernatural plays a much more prominent role in the world and so science had to adjust with it. For the most part, Humans, Elves, Wiccans, and a hybrid creature of Martian and Human called Eartian have been existing in a social bubble that isn't too much different from the one you know for tens of thousands of years in total. But more recently new races are making themselves known, more specifically the Universians. They emerged with powers, unlike anything the already magical world had ever seen before. The Universians are causing a lot of disruption to this world. In this chapter-story, you'll get to take a glimpse into Universian lifestyle...it's kinda stressful.
